

Your Path to Career Development and Professional Success

Unlike other online universities, AAIM's goal is to work directly with organizations to identify key topics of interest! It can be anything from compliance training, directed development training, an onboarding curriculum, or sales training... Anytime, Anywhere.

AAIM University helps employees create a database of learning events that can directly impact career growth and the growth of companies by providing:

- An alternate learning experience for career-oriented individuals
- Small (1 hour or less) programs for easy assimilation
- Variety of formats from streaming video to interactive self-paced modules with assessments
- Modules that are optimized to work on mobile devices, tablets and PC's
- Educational opportunities without leaving your office or home
